St. James's, May 24.

AN humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and others, at the Aſſizes held at the Caſtle of York for that County, the 16th of March laſt, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderneſs, Lord Lieutenant of the North-Riding of the ſaid County of York.

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Vienna, May 15. On the 13th Inſtant about three in the Morning the Empreſs fell into Labour, and between ſix and ſeven was brought to Bed of an Arch-Dutcheſs. About half an Hour after the Emperour arrived from Luxembourg, whither a Courier had been immediately diſpatched to give him Notice of the Empreſs's being in Labour. The People did not give any publick Demonſtrations of Joy upon this Occaſion, nor were any Illuminations made, as at the Birth of the Arch-Duke. Three Days were appointed for the Appearance of the Nobility at Court in ſplendid Habits, which is all the Notice that was taken of this Princeſs's Birth. In the Evening of the 13th ſhe was chriſten'd with the uſual Solemnity by the Names of Maria, Tereſia, Valburga, Amalia, Chriſtina; the Empreſs Mother being God-Mother, and the Pope God Father, repreſented by his Nuncio. Laſt Night the Dutcheſs of Blanckenbourg the Empreſs's Mother arrived here; ſhe ſupped with the Empreſs Amalia, and this Morning received the Compliments of the whole Court. On the 13th in the Evening Prince Eugene ſet out from hence for the Army in Hungary, and propoſes to be at Peterwaradin by the 21ſt Inſtant. The Letters from thence of the 8th ſay, that a great Number of Turkiſh Veſſels and Boats with about 4000 Men on board, aſſiſted by above 2000 Soldiers on ſhore, attacked on the 3d Inſtant four of the Emperor's great Ships lying near Salankement, but were repulſed with the Loſs of eight Veſſels, and of a good Number of Men on board and on ſhore. On the 13th two Men of War, one of 56, and the other of 52 Guns, went down the Danube to join the reſt of the Fleet; and Yeſterday the Regiment of Holſtein-Beck arrived here from the Low-Countries, and will immediately proceed down the River to join the Army. The ſame Day the Empreſs Amalia laid, with great Ceremony, the firſt Stone of a Monaſtery ſhe is about to build at her own Expence, not far from this City, for Nuns of the Order of St. Francis de Sales. The Inveſtiture which was to have been given Yeſterday to the Elector of Bavaria's Miniſters, is, upon the Birth of the Arch-Dutcheſs, put off to the 19th Inſtant. The Emperour has named five Velt-Marſhals, viz. Prince Alexander of Wirtemberg, Count Tierheim the Commiſſary General, Count Rappach Deputy Governour of Vienna, the Count de Neubourg, and the Count de Vehlen.

Paris, May 29. Yeſterday the Parliament of Paris took into Examination an Appeal of ſeveral Canons of the Cathedral of Rheims, and of ſome Pariſh Prieſts of that Dioceſe, whom their Archbiſhop has excommunicated for oppoſing him in the Affair of the Pope's Conſtitution Unigenitus, which he formerly accepted and ſtill adheres to. And after M. de Lamoignon, the King's Advocate-General, had given his Opinion for the Appellants, the Parliament paſſed an Arrêt or Decree, by which the Proceedings of the Archbiſhop of Rheims are declared illegal and null; and he is ſentenced to pay for Coſts and Damages 100 Crowns to each Canon, and 400 Livres to each Pariſh-Prieſt: The Arrêt orders likewiſe, that an Entry made in the Regiſter of the Faculty of Theology of Rheims, as if the Majority had agreed to accept the Pope's ſaid Conſtitution, ſhall be cancelled; and that this Sentence of the Parliament ſhall be inſerted in the Regiſters of the Officiality of Rheims, over againſt the Archbiſhop's Sentence of Excommunication of his ſaid Clergy. The Princes of the Blood are very urgent that their Diſpute with the legitimated Princes may be brought to a ſpeedy Deciſion, and the King's Council of State having made an Arrêt, by which both the Parties are ordered to give in their ſeveral Pleas to the King's Council, by the laſt Day of this Month, this Affair is in a Way to be forthwith determined.

Hague, May 28. The States have now accommodated their long Diſpute with the Elector of Cologn, who is to write them a Letter of Complément and Excuſe, for what paſt with their Garriſon when it was obliged to retire out of Bonn. That Place is to be left almoſt in the Condition it is in at preſent; but the Fortreſs of Huy is to be demoliſhed, and the Citadel of Liege, all but the Works next the Town, as they were before the laſt War. The Manner of paying the Subſidy to the States by the Auſtrian Netherlands, is almoſt adjuſted, but the great Difficulty remaining is the Term from whence the Payment is to begin: The States would have it reckoned from the Day of the ſigning the Treaty of Barrier, and the Marquis de Prié only from the Time that the Emperour was put in Poſſeſſion. The Difference is ſaid to be between two and three hundred thouſand Dollars. Letters from Weſel of the 25th Inſtant ſay, the King of Pruſſia was expected there the next Day, or the 27th, and would be at Guelders on the 29th; from whence he would immediately return to Cleves without going any farther: The Prince of Anhalt has waited on him in this Journey. The States of Holland will ſeparate to Morrow.

Vienna, May 19. This Day the Bavarian Miniſters received the Inveſtiture of their Maſter's Dominions, ſo that the Electoral Prince and his Brother who have ſtopped upon the Road till they hear it is granted, are expected here very ſhortly: The former will be lodged at Court, and
